

IFSM Young Scientists Assembly (YSA)
Program

Sunday 9 September 2018
Room 4001, Level 4, Sydney Nanoscience Hub, Physics Road, Camperdown,
University of Sydney, Sydney, 2006, NSW, Australia

08:15-08:45	Busses depart from Mercure Sydney (for IFSM YSA guests staying in-house) and PARKROYAL Darling Harbour
08:45-09:00	Refreshments
	IFSM Young Scientists Assembly – Session 1
	Welcome IFSM YSA Chair: Prof Eva Olsson; and IMC19 Chair: Prof Simon Ringer
	Welcome IFSM President: Dr Kazuo Furuya
09:00-10:05	Special Young Scientists Assembly Session: Crucial aspects to consider when submitting your manuscript to International Journals Prof Angus Kirkland and Dr John Mansfield Editors-in-Chief: "Ultramicroscopy" and "Microscopy and Microanalysis"
	Overview of the nations of the IFSM YSA – an overview of the nations, affiliations and topics of this community IFSM YSA Chair: Prof Eva Olsson
10:05-10:35	Morning Tea Review of "My Favourite Image" Competition – Networking
	Presentation of the IFSM YSA Distinguished Guests – Session 2
	5 minute introductions by a selection of the IFSM YSA Distinguished Guests who will provide a brief summary about their careers:
10:35-12:00	Prof Dan Shechtman (Technion - Israel Institute of Technology) Prof Joachim Frank (Columbia University) Prof Archie Howie (University of Cambridge) Amy Gandy (University of Sheffield) Thomas Kelly (Cameca Instruments Inc) David Smith (Arizona State University) Martha McCartney (Arizona State University) Gaia Pigno (Max Planck Institute) Plus other speakers (to be confirmed)
12:00-13:00	Lunch
	Round Table Conversations with the IFSM YSA Distinguished Guests – Session 3
	During this session the IFSM YSA Distinguished Guests will have round table discussions with the young scientists who will have an opportunity to chat informally with these international leaders of the field. The IFSM YSA Distinguished Guests will rotate tables every 10 minutes.
13:00-14:30	'Conversation starters': "What was your pathway into microscopy?" "What has been the greatest challenge of your career?" "What has brought you the most joy from your career, to date?" Don't feel limited to these questions – you can ask the IFSM YSA Distinguished Guests anything about their professional career.

14:30-14:45	Afternoon Tea Final vote of "My Favourite Image"
14:45-16:15	Inspirations – and some Questions for the Assembly – Session 4
	14:45-15:15	Special Presentation: Assoc Prof Jennifer Dionne (Stanford University)
	15:15-15:45	Group Work for the IFSM Young Scientists Assembly After this special presentation, young scientists will be required to do some work on behalf of IFSM! Each table will be allocated a question of strategic importance to IFSM to discuss and debate. Each group will be required to allocate a scribe, as well as a spokesperson. Each Group to Report Back (3 Minute Oral Reports) The spokesperson from each group will be required to provide a brief oral summary of the response of the group following the 30 minutes of discussion.
	Inspirations – Session 5
16:15-16:30	16:15-16:30	Close of Meeting IFSM YSA Chair: Prof Eva Olsson Presentation of Winner of "My Favourite Image"
16:45	Buses depart to return to the International Convention Centre, Sydney (for IFSM YSA Young Scientists) and PARKROYAL Darling Harbour (ahead of IMC19 Welcome Reception at 18:00)	